

Kaesler Avignon
2006

$27

Named in reference to the Southern Rhone town of Avignon, once home to the Pope and pioneering TV chef, Keith Floyd. Floyd would love this because it's drinkable, very, very drinkable. Purple fruits, ripe and luscious, bright, upbeat and balanced.