

WINE ENTHUSIAST
MAGAZINE

Buying Guide

90 Kaesler 2006 Cabernet Sauvignon (Barossa Valley); $30. This amply endowed, creamy-textured Cab may not make old bones, but it offers a delicious mouthful of rich cassis fruit, accented by hints of mint, tobacco and dark chocolate. It's silky enough to drink now, with a long, slightly warm finish. Imported by Epicurean Wines. —J.C.

Canopy management—desuckering and shoot positioning—is an important facet underlying Sicily's greatly improved wines.

Special Advance Release

Reviews appearing in the May 2009 issue

FOR ADDITIONAL RATINGS AND REVIEWS
www.winemag.com/buyingguide