

Kaesler Avignon
GSM
2006

$30

Reid Bosward has his eye in with the Avignon blend - year in, year out it's one of the most approachable Barossa red blends and great value to boot. Plush sweet berry fruit, liquorice and cherry cola flavours roll through smoothly on well-proportioned tannins.

Nashwauk
Wrecked Shiraz
2006

$60

Nashwauk is the McLaren Vale project made by Kaesler of Barossa Valley fame and it shares the same throaty style. Earth and spices, some nutty oak and ripe plum fruit. Tannins roll fine and even through the finish, nice and supple - it taps into the region's strengths.
