

Barossa at home.

Spend the weekend with our Winemakers.
Saturday June 27 and Sunday June 28, 2009

introduction

Walk into a cellar door in the Barossa this weekend and be greeted by the person who crafted the wine in your glass. Have a chat – about the wine or anything else that strikes your fancy. There will be some interesting treats in store too.

Wineries that never open their doors to the public will offer rare tasting opportunities, others will open their museums for comparison tastings and some will host intimate winemaker dinners (for not more than 20).

This is our invitation to join our close-knit Barossa family for a weekend at home with us. Nothing fancy – a glass of wonderful Barossa wine with the person who crafted it, a bite to eat, a lot of laughter and engaging conversation. Warm, cosy and relaxed – a rare occasion not to be missed.

Bookings for tastings by appointment and dinners are being taken by individual wineries. Book quickly to avoid missing out!
